PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Many Short Items Concerning Some People You Know.

Jack Kingreen was over from Greenwood this week as a trial juror.

J. Sierck was here from Hopland several days this week on business.

Ed Stoddard is here from Fort Bragg on a vacation and will remain several weeks.

Lem Sallady was down from Round valley this week as a witness in the Simmons case.

John T. Ham was among the many Round valley citizens in town this week attending court.

A. T. Riffe and A. C. Swortfiguer represented Willits at the county seat this week as trial jurors.

A. Bittencourt and L. Colberg, two substantial citizens of Cleone, were here this week doing a little courting.

W. S. Pinches, Sam Pinches and J. M. Dill arrived in town from Laytonville last Tuesday on a business visit.

J. A. Newman, A. Lappinen and John Hyman were among the Fort Braggers in town this week attending to duties as jurors.

L. A. Jackson and wife and Miss Kitty Murphy came up from San Jose last week to attend the funeral of L. W. Jackson.

Tobe Mitchell was down from Branscomb as a trial juror this week, but was excused to go home on account of urgent business.

Will Whitney was down from Willits last week on business. Will went to school here twenty years ago and was warmly greeted by his old schoolmates.

R. Hanson, of this county, is now located in San Diego where he has a position as night watchman and is doing well. He sends regards to his old time Mendocino friends.

Harry Docker came in from Comptche Wednesday morning and remained in town several days on business. He reports the Democratic candidates all very strong in that part of the county.

Frank W. Dooley, one of Hopland's prominent merchants, came up to the county seat this week to act as a trial juror. He was excused, however, and went back home to attend to some important business.

Louis Peterson, of Fort Bragg, was among the many visitors at the county seat this week doing jury duty. He reports things improving on the coast and the town has about recovered from the effects of the earthquake.

Constable Redwine was among the many witnesses down from Covelo this week. He did good work in the capture of Simmons and has secured much valuable evidence for the prosecution. Bob is certainly quite a sleuth hound.

Z. P. Millington, teacher of the Pieta school, is substituting for Prof. Joyce as principal of the Willits school while Mr. Joyce is out campaigning for auditor. The school is fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Millington as he is an educator of ability.

Ernest J. Cuthbertson, principal of the Hopland school, was a county seat visitor this week. He was bookkeeper for the American Hop and Barley company during hoppicking and enjoyed the change from the school room. School reopened Monday with a good attendance.

Charley Brewer, formerly of this valley, is lying at the point of death in Fresno, and his sister Mrs. Ida Rogers left for that city this week. Charley was injured a year ago in a San Francisco street car accident and has been in poor health ever since. A piece of flying glass pierced the lung tissue and his recovery is doubtful.

T. L. Young was here from Westport this week as a witness in a murder case.

Judge Dunn came over from Westport this week to attend the Indian murder trial.

J. A. Ward was here from Hermitage this week on a visit to his daughter Mrs. W. F. Ornbaun.

Frank Laporte went to Santa Rosa this week to attend the funeral of his mother who died there the first of the week.

M. E. Nicholson was among the many Round valley visitors in town this week and had a good time shaking hands with old time friends.

George Higgins is acting as city marshal during the absence of Warren DeMerrit, who is taking a much deserved vacation. George is certainly the man that can hold down the job in good shape.

Will Evans, son of A. N. Evans, has been acting as court reporter this week and is getting along nicely. Will is a splendid young man and has the staying quality that means success. His friends will be pleased to hear of his advancement.

W. H. Cooper has returned from Point Arena where he went to visit the lodge of Fraternal Brotherhood. He will visit the lodge here next Wednesday and requests a good turnout He is the official organizer for this jurisdiction.

Democratic Candidate for Treasurer

REPUBLICAN PAPER COMMENDS JOYCE

Among the best qualified and most worthy of the numerous candidates for county offices, from among whom the voters of this county will elect their public servants, not bosses, is James A. Joyce of this town. Mr. Joyce is a native of this county and has lived here since his birth. For several years he has lived in Willits, and has held the responsible position of principal of the Willits grammar school. He is not a pampered son of wealthy parents but has educated himself and risen to a position of responsibility by his own efforts. He has the confidence and respect of the people where he is best known and in November he will roll up a majority here that will insure his election to the office of county auditor.—Willits News.

Died From Operation

Miss Nellie Tutt died in San Francisco last Tuesday from the shock resulting from an operation for appendicitis. She was taken sick here Sunday and was taken to the city by Dr. Stout where she was operated upon at the Lane hospital for appendicitis. The shock was too much for her and she died next day. The remains were brought to this city for interment. The funeral took place yesterday from the home of her mother in this city.

Gets Year For Burglary

Harry Smith, who was under arrest for burglarizing a store in Willits, plead guilty this week and was sentenced to serve a year in San Quentin. It will be remembered that he robbed Flaherty's saloon some time ago. He is a bad egg and is now where he belongs.

POLITICAL POT POURRI

Democratic Candidates Will Make Tour of County

Senator J. B. Sanford leaves tomorrow for Lake county where he will spend a week stumping the county in the interest of his candidacy for the senatorship. He will go from there to Glenn and Colusa where he will campaign for two weeks. Returning to this county about the 20th of October, and he and District Attorney Duncan will wind up the campaign here. Most of the county candidates will accompany them. They will address the people of Round valley, Laytonville, Willits, Mendocino, Caspar, Westport, Fort Bragg, Cleone, Albion, Elk, Manchester, Point Arena, Boonville, Hopland, Potter valley and Ukiah. It is expected that Theodore Bell and W. A. Beard will be here at the close of the campaign in Ukiah.

Beamer Resigns

R. H. Beamer, familiarly known as "Honest Dick," who was renominated for the board of equalization by the Democrats at Sacramento, has been very ill for some time and has been forced to resign from the ticket. This will be regretted by both Democrats and Republicans alike throughout the district where Dick is so well known. Mr. Beamer has served on the board for sixteen years. Dr. C. W. Nutting has been placed on the ticket to fill the vacancy caused by Mr. Beamer's resignation. Dr. Nutting is a srtong man and hails from Siskyou county. He was grand master of the Masons some three years ago and is well known throughout the district.

Democratic Speaking

Hon. W. A. Beard, the Democratic candidate for congress, will address the voters of Hopland and vicinity next Thursday evening, October 4, and Willits, Friday evening, October 5. Mr. Beard is a hustler and a large audience should greet him at both places. He will visit Ukiah later with Mr. Bell and address the people on the issues of the campaign.

WILL STUMP THE COUNTY FOR BELL

J. W. Palmer and Casper A. Ornbaun will stump the county in a few days for Bell and the Democratic ticket. They will open up at Hopland with W. A. Beard next Thursday evening, and will accompany the next congressman to Willits where they will address the people on Friday evening. From there Messrs. Palmer and Ornbaun will go to Fort Bragg and address the people there on Saturday evening. The rest of their itinerary is as follows: Westport, Monday October 8; Caspar, October 9; Mendocino, October 10; Albion, October 11; Elk, October 12 and Point Arena October 13. They are fluent speakers and will entertain all those who can find it convenient to come out to the meetings.

Prominent Republican For Bell

John Davidson, who was president of the California Federation of Labor for two years, was in town this week in the interest of Theodore A. Bell, the Democratic and Union Labor candidate for governor. Mr. Davidson is president of the Vallejo board of education and is secretary of the Vallejo Trades and Labor council. He is a prominent Republican but is doing all he can for Bell because he thinks every wage earner should support Bell. Davidson is prominent in the Uniform Rank of the Knights of Pythias being the major in the Second Regiment.

John R. Hurley and Jas. O. Hurley, alumni of the Ukiah and the Mendocino high schools respectively, have returned to San Jose to complete their studies in the state normal school there.

LETTER FROM SAN FRANCISCO

A Budget of Interesting News From the Metropolis

San Francisco, Sept. 24.—Just a line or so from Greater San Francisco to tell you of its growth, its people and its progress.

We notice the advent of every individual as he seeks his new hold on life and business, about as one watches the convalescence of a relative or a dear friend who has been very ill. Here it was the case of so many struck financially, physically or mentally, or all three perhaps, that one long associated with the old scenes and faces, watches the advent of the new with the keenest interest.

The Edward L. Baldwin Drug company, so long wholesale and retail druggists, opened the first store after the earthquake, and then the first on Market street was the Ferry Drug company. They are the sort of up-to-date, wide awake dealers that stop at nothing in advertising. Give you anything from a bottle of the finest perfume to a bottle of their famous "celery soda" for the nerves just to introduce themselves, or their drugs. The "Owl" has its up-to-date places in all its former haunts.

Are you not proud of Oscar Cooper? He was one of the very first to come to the rescue of the stricken, though hard hit himself in a business way, as the most of the men were. But he was and is the secretary of the main board of relief, and has done a great deal of work. You will all remember his promise of a master mind when he was a youth. His college days at Stanford and Harvard, his foreign travel and long association in the east with the gifted and the cultured, have made him more than the most sanguine might have expected of him. His friends here believe in him thoroughly, and have great expectations regarding his future. He has certainly been a friend in need.

It is rumored that one of the oldest business houses in town is on a very shaky basis. Such reports grieve us after such sad trials, as only the misfortunes of friends can.

It was a villianous plot to ruin the Hibernia bank by a run on the bank. Fortunately it failed ignominously as it deserved.

Speaking of San Francisco's prides, do you know that Mr. Phelan is not the least of these? What a perfect representative of "God's noblest work" he has proven himself. If great wealth could always be placed in such safe hands, the world would be happier. High and low, rich and poor believe in him.

Getting back to lighter matters. I was out at the Chutes the other night and saw a clean vaudeville show that was refreshing and entertianing. Heard some delightful music and enjoyed some excellent dancing.

In matters social the decorative scheme and the preparation of refreshments is very simple now and is generally placed in the hands of professionals; the cost is so little more, and you escape nearly all anxiety and work.

I went to Santa Cruz to visit friends during the Native Son's celebration. There was a mistake in my ticket that made me a wanderer on the face of the earth that night as I shall not soon forget. I was put from train to train, between colored porters, inebriated travelers and eventually the loss of purse, money. I will certainly remember that celebration. Mrs. Prosser, nee Blanche Thatcher, the wife of M. F. Prosser, the attorney general of the the Territory of Hawaii, is home from the Islands.

One of the many new skating rinks of the city is at Fell and Baker streets. It will be an immense affair.

Here endeth the most that I know this time. From one who once was

ONE OF YOU.

John Studebaker, of Christine, lost his fruit dryer by fire last week and considerable dried fruit.

High School Items

School opened September 10 with a good attendance. The following Monday one hundred and thirty-one pupils were enrolled, eighty-one girls and fifty boys. Everything points to a very successful term. Each pupil seems to be interested in his work and takes an active part in the school exercises.

It can be easily seen that the extra weeks of vacation were a benefit to the school body, for the following are the sums made by the various classes in the hopfields: Seniors, $145.54; juniors, $782.45; sophmores $679.08; freshmen, $307.46, resulting in a total of $1932.83.

The boys are earnestly training for the S. M. A. A. L. field day, which will be held the 13 or 20 of October, according to the date of the A.A L. The boys are greatly in hopes of carrying off the honors and win the silver cup. The field day meet will be held here, and the excursion from Petaluma and all way points will make an exciting day for Ukiah.

Have Bought Saloon

J. B. Melton has returned from Klamath Falls, Oregon, where he has been for some time looking for a business opening. He and J. A. Sullivan, formerly of Willits, purchased a saloon there. Mr. Melton will stay here until after the election and will then go to Klamath Falls to look after the business. Mr. Sullivan will conduct the business in the meantime.

JOHN C. LANE
Mendocino County's Candidate for State Surveyor General

MONEY SCATTERED FOR HOP PICKING

Hop picking is over and the pickers have been paid off and are happy. Baling is now almost completed and a few days will see the season's crop all baled and ready for market. The crop was exceedingly large in this county and the quality is also good. There was paid out to pickers over $75,000, and everyone seems to have a little "pin money." The high school pupils made over $2000 during the three weeks they were in the field, which will all come in handy when new books have to be purchased. The output in this county is estimated at about 12,000 bales. Quite a big portion of the crop has been engaged at 10 and 11 cents. The outlook now is not so good for high prices as it was some two weeks ago and growers will doubtless take 16 and 17 cents if it is offered.

Development Association Meets

There was a meeting of the North of the Bay Counties Development Association last night in the court house for the purpose of organizing and getting down to business. There were representatives present from Sonoma, Marin, Lake, Napa and Willits. A constitution and by-laws were adopted and some good work is expected soon. It was not known until yesterday that the representatives were to be here and consequently there was not a very large crowd out. Next time if Ukiah is notified in time a good tournout will be on hand.

George G. Lewis was over from Westport this week on business.

SIMMONS IS CONVICTED

Jury Recommends Life Imprisonment For Murderer

The Simmons case has been occupying the attention of the superior court most of the week. It will be remembered that Jacob Frei was murdered in the early part of August in the hills east of Covelo. The murder was one of the most cold blooded and revolting in the history of the county. Hog Simmons, as he is known, is charged with the crime and is being tried at this term of court. About fifty witnesses from Round valley have been here all this week and the case attracted much attention. The following jurors were selected to try the case: H. S. Tregoning, L. Edwards, Ed Banker, W. H. Beale, M. S. Sloper, Forest Emery, F. P. Brown, A. S. Howell, Scott Howard, Julius Roller, J. C. Clow, W. J. Hildreth.

The jury in the Simmons case brought in a verdict yesterday afternoon after being out a few hours. The success of the case is due entirely to Bob Duncan, the best district attorney the county has ever had. The verdict of the jury was guilty as charged and agreed to recommend imprisonment for life in the state prison. That Simmons killed poor Jake Frei in cold blood is beyond question. Simmons was ably defended by Messrs. Weldon & Held, whom the court appointed to defend him. He certainly has no complaint for the attorneys worked hard to save him. The people of this county owe a debt of gratitude to Bob Duncan for ridding the community of such lawless characters. This makes thirty-nine felony cases Mr. Duncan has prosecuted since he has been in office and has secured thirty-seven convictions. He is certainly a terror to evil doers, and if he is retained in that office long crime in this county will be reduced to a minimum. Like any other officer that does his duty Mr. Duncan has made some enemies, but all of his enemies are in San Quentin and are perfectly harmless.

Death of an Old Citizen

Oswald Kirry, who for twenty-five years kept the O. K. House in Anderson valley and who is well known to many coasters, died on the 9th of September at the home of Mrs. Charles Bartlett, his daughter, at Ferndale, Humboldt county. He was aged 86 years, 10 months, and had been ill several months. He was a pioneer of California, having lived in this state since he was a young man. He was also a veteran of the Mexican war. He was a native of Switzerland and leaves seven children to mourn his loss. They are Walter Kirry, of Tonopah; Henry Kirry, of Oregon; Mrs. Josephine Friend, of Montana; Mrs. C. L. Buttle, of Nevada; Mrs. Louisa and Mrs. Delia Ross, of Healdsburg, and Mrs. C. A. Bartlett, of Ferndale. The departed also leaves behind a brother, John Kirry.—Beacon.

The Northern Crown

The July-August issue of the Northern Crown is out and it is a very creditable number. The number was a little late on account of the delay in getting cuts, but it is a fine illustrated catalogue of Lake county, and although a little late, will be appreciated by the people of our neighboring county. The matter and the illustrations have been gotten out at quite an expense and shows up the best side of the county and its future possibilities. Mrs. Anna Morrison Reed, the editress of the Northern Crown, is to be congratulated upon the success of the edition.

Looks Good To Mike

M. A. Thomas, the popular candidate for assessor, returned last week from an extended trip over the county in the interest of his candidacy for the office he has filled so acceptably for the past two terms. He is much encouraged over the outlook

PIANO EXPERIMENTS.

Playing by Sweeping the Strings With a Feather.

Open wide your piano so that the wires are exposed. Over the wires place sheets of music, and when you strike a tone you will and that it has a rattling sound. If now you play a tune in the same manner, with the sheets of music still lying on the strings, it will sound as if the instrument were a banjo. Anyhow, it is a good imitation.

Now remove the music sheets and press down gently, but firmly, the keys belonging to any cord. Take the simple cord C, E, G, for example. The keys must be pressed down without sounding them and held down while some one gently brushes the strings with a feather or a straw. The effect will be as if the cord were played far away and is heard by you as very soft tones.

Change the cord, always pressing down the keys without sounding them while the feather still sweeps the strings lightly. In this way you may modulate or play a slow piece, and the effect will be very beautiful, indeed, as if heard from a great distance.

The reason of this is that ordinarily a damper rests against each string but when the corresponding key is struck or pressed down the damper is raised. In sweeping the strings with the feather, lightly, only the strings that are undampered sound, the others being held mute by the dampers, but if the touch of the feather is too heavy even the other strings may sound, so your care must be in making a light and delicate touch.

Now press down a key gently and hold it. Strike very hard the octave above this key, but do not hold it after striking the tone. When the wire of the tone struck has been sufficiently dampered, so that it does not sound so loud, the pressed down key will be heard to "sing" clearly, even though it was not struck. This is because every note struck is composed of several notes, being in reality a cord in itself, and each note contained in that cord causes the corresponding note in the keyboard to vibrate, or "sing," in sympathy if held down in like manner.

The other notes that will sound under these conditions will always be the fifth above the octave, the second octave and the third and fifth above that, and these tones that sound are called "overtones."

For illustration, if C in the lower part of the piano be struck, any or all of the notes that follow will sound if their keys are first pressed and held down.—Philadelphia Press.

The Fact of It.

"It's love that makes the world go 'round," said the old fashioned sentimentalist.

"No," answered Miss Cayenne; "it merely makes some people so dizzy that they think the world is going 'round."—Washington Star.

The dawn of the future is announced to such as can read its signs, and we owe ourselves wholly to it.—Mazzini.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS.

When you are all done but finishing, you are just half done.

If you have time to boast about being worked to death, you have not much to do.

Some people are so unfortunate that their troubles make people laugh instead of cry.

A man who underestimates himself may be tiresome, but he is not a circumstance to the man who brags.

People may disdain a compliment, but they feel a tender little spot in them where it hit and refused to be dislodged.

It is a theory growing in conviction that the man who says a mean thing about another isn't as mean as the man who carries it.

The man who travels over the path behind you wisely looks at your footprints and sees where you could have avoided many a pitfall.—Atchison Globe.

Tiny Trees.

The midget of the whole tree family is the Greenland birch. It is a perfect tree in every sense of that term and lives its allotted number of years from 75 to 130 just as other species of the great birch family do, although its height under the most favorable conditions seldom exceeds ten inches. Whole bluffs of the east and southeast coast of Greenland are covered with "thickets" of this diminutive species of woody plant, and in many places where the soil is uncommonly poor and frozen from eight to ten months a year a "forest" of these trees will flourish for half a century without growing to a height exceeding four inches.

Strange Dances.

Queensland's government aboriginal settlement on Frazer's island holds a weekly dance for the blacks. Among the bundles of old clothes sent to the settlement there are often ball gowns, so the gins sport decollete dresses. Neither sex wears boots. The sexes have to dance separately.—Sydney Bulletin.

Shrewd Guess.

Senior Partner—We must be careful not to give Billings any more credit. He's evidently losing money. Junior Partner—How do you know? Senior Partner—I heard his remark today that "life is full of ups and downs." No man ever admits that until he begins to strike the down.—Philadelphia Press.

Rejected.

"I have called," said the confident young man, with a manuscript sticking out of his pocket, "to see whether there is a vacancy in this office."

"No," replied the melancholy editor as he looked round the place; "I'm sorry to say there is none. Even the waste paper basket is full."

A Change.

"Well, well! There goes Miss Strong. When I saw her last she was posing as a bachelor girl. That's her hobby."

"All that's changed now. She dropped her hobby for a hubby."—Exchange.

NORTHERN MENDOCINO

Covelo, Sept. 23.—Our town will be deserted for a few days as about 10 witnesses have left here for the county seat to attend the Simmons trial. Jack Weldon was here last week looking up evidence in favor of Simmons, he having been appointed by the court to defend him.

Mrs. A. C. Perry has gone to San Francisco to lay in a fall stock of millinery. George Bauer and Sanford Redwine have also gone to the city, the former to lay in his fall stock stock of merchandise and the latter to sell his collection of Indian baskets.

Dr. Purves, the physician who had charge of Dr. Liftchild's practice while Doc was away on a vacation, has returned to Oakland as Dr. Liftchild is back ready for business.

Ed Ornbaun and Harry Beard, of Laytonville, have been here recently buying cattle. Ned West, G. H. Dill and Willard Burns came over from Laytonville to help drive the band back.

W. S. Van Dyke has returned from an electioneering trip through the county, and Joe Rea has pulled out of Covelo feeling a little blue, as Mike Thomas is going to fool him on the vote here.

Henry Clay Duncan died at the home of Gus Russ on September 10 at the age of 27 years and five months. He leaves a father, three brothers and three sisters.

Politics will soon begin to warm up now that all the candidates are in the field. The fight for supervisor will attract the most attention. Healey's man Fairbank will not get near the vote he got last time. In fact it is doubtful if he can carry the valley. He is using 70 per cent of this year's money in order to give some additional road work to the faithful, but the honest farmer and the people who have to travel over the roads are for Saxon.

W. F. McClure is busy getting everything in readiness to build the bridge across Eel river. The cement and iron casing have been hauled over from Laytonville and men are busy getting out the timbers.

Americanized.

When in New York F. Marion Crawford has his barbering done and his boots blacked at his office. He always has the same men, and both are Italians. In engaging the bootblack Mr. Crawford asked him where he was born. "In Genoa," was the answer. "And what is your name?" "Patrick Murphy," was the astonishing reply. "Where in the world did you get that name?" asked the novelist. "I take-a the name after I come here, so people think-a I the American," said the bootblack.

Passing of the Paris Black Cat.

Soon the Chat Noir will disappear from the memories of Paris; at least, in its old associations. As a hotel it has ceased to exist. Many managers have tried to make it pay without depriving it entirely of its traditions, but since Salis nobody has been able to hit the public fancy in such measure as to command success. The place is now being entirely transformed and will next appeal to the public as an old curiosity shop.—London Globe.

Three Jurors Cured

Mr. G. W. Fowler, of Hightower, Ala., relates an experience he had while serving on a petit jury on a murder case at Edwardsville, Alabama. He says: "While there I ate some fresh meat and some souse meat and it gave me cholera morbus in a very severe form. I never was more sick in my life and sent to the drug store for a certain cholera mixture but the druggist sent me a bottle of Chamberlain's Cholic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy instead, saying that he had what I sent for but that this medicine was so much better that he would rather send it to me in the fix that I was in. I took one dose of it and was better in five minutes. The second dose cured me entirely. Two fellow jurors were afflicted in the same manner and one small bottle cured the three of us." NEWSY ITEMS FROM WILLITS

Willits, Sept. 24.—A fierce forest fire raged through the timber of the Northwestern Redwood company last week near the Irvine & Muir mill and destroyed much property. For awhile the mill was threatened but a large force of fire fighters went out and fought for two days and finally headed off the fire. The fire covered an area of over two miles, and destroyed everything in its path. The heaviest loss falls on the Northwestern Redwood company and will be in the neighborhood of $15,000. E. H. Sweetser lost all his earnings of a year and is left in a bad condition financially.

The biggest deer of the season killed in these parts was killed last week by John Keller. It tipped the scales at 117 pounds.

O. M. Simonson is up and around after a rustle with the measles.

Z. P. Millington is substituting in the principal's department of the grammar school while J. A. Joyce chases the elusive voter for a few weeks. Mr. Millington comes highly recommended and the school is to be congratulated upon getting him as a substitute.

George Hale has sold his property in this city and has taken his departure for southern California with his family.

Edwin J. Moore, the cook at the Nortwestern mill, cut his foot quite severely the other day while splitting wood.

The Noonans have been up this way buying mutton sheep and have about 800 head in the Baechtel pasture and are shipping them to the city in carload lots.

The Round valley fast freight was turned over in the Norton gulch last week, delaying the stage a day. In passing some teams on the grade the freight was crowded off the grade and the wagon tongue broken. The driver had to unload the freight and return to Willits for repairs.

Genial Mike Thomas was here last week and is going to make another record breaking run. He has given good satisfaction as assessor and if left to the people of this vicinity he will be returned to the office he has so ably filled.

W. T. Saxon is gaining strength in his fight for supervisor each day. He will make a fight for the rights of the people instead of a San Francisco bridge firm like the present supervisor did. Healey's man Friday, nee Fairbanks, is running like a man with an Oregon boot on.

Odd Inscription on a Coin.

"Millions for the contractors, but not one cent for the widows," is the inscription on a coin, dated 1863, which was received under peculiar circumstances by George A. Lee of this city a few days ago. The piece is apparently of a restricted issue, as none of the many persons to whom it has been submitted for inspection ever saw its like. It was accompanied by a letter mailed from Detroit and signed Howard Henzler, which informed the recipient that the coin was given him as a pocket piece twenty-five years ago in Raleigh, S. C., by the long since deceased father of Mr. Lee. The epistle concludes with the hope that "the son of my benefactor of long years ago may enjoy the good fortune that has been mine since its acquisition."—Philadelphia Record.

Inhabitants of a Mountain.

The peak of Apo, a huge volcanic mountain in the center of the island of Mindanao, has been added to the category of mountains remarkable for possessing animal species peculiar to themselves and differing from those of the surrounding lowlands. Dr. E. A. Mearns announces as the result of a month's examination of Apo that most of the species and several of the genera collected on its higher portions are new to science. It has added three genera and more than a score of species to the list of birds inhabiting the Philippines. Its animal life to a large extent differs not only from that of the lowlands, but also from that of the other highlands of the archipelago.—Exchange.

Wonderful Corn.

According to the Checotah (I. T.) Times, one of its readers, whose veracity is above question, tells the following: "The terrible news comes from the western part of the Cherokee Nation that a boy climbed a cornstalk to see how the corn was getting along, and now the stalk is growing up faster than the boy can climb down. The boy is clear out of sight. Three men have undertaken to cut the stalk down with axes and save the boy from starvation, but it grows so fast that they can't hack twice in the same place. The boy is living on nothing but raw corn and already has thrown down over four bushels of cobs."

MIDDLE COST HPPENINGS

Mendocino, Sept. 24.—Candidates have been around in droves the past week. Congressman McKinlay made a speech here last week to a fair sized crowd. He is a great hot air merchant, Dunk is. He didn't explain why he stood in with the trusts and refused to assist San Francisco to rebuild by taking the tariff off of building materials. He didn't explain why he played "hookey" from congress to any ones satisfaction but his own.

Alex Rawles was also here, as was Gene Holbrook, and they appeared and made a few desultory remarks. Rawles behaved himself a little better than he did at Point Arena before the primaries. He is a good fellow, however, but he might as well go home and save his money as he can't come within a mile of beating Emmet Donohoe.

George Parker, the Independent candidate for recorder, is going to get a big vote here. He made the race four years ago when the fight was a forlorn one, but this year when the bosses thought there was a chance to win they turned poor Parker down. The people won't stand for it.

H. McKenzie has gone to Gualala where he is acting as head mechanic on the repair of the Gualala bridge. Henry is the right man in the right place.

J. L. Skiffington and wife were here from Fisherman's bay last week. He has done a good business but was handicapped by the lack of steamers. He, in association with others, has purchased the steam schooner Gualala and will fit her up for the run to Eureka in rough weather. The price paid for the vessel is said to have been $34,000.

There has been a great scarcity of workmen on the coast this year. When the Gualala mill burned down there was a pull made for the men thrown out of employment. Will Coombs got about 40 for the Caspar company. Some went to Wendling and some to Albion.

Bob Kerr is busy repairing the draw bridge spanning the river at Albion.

Ed Furlong, who started a creamery at Albion some time ago, is getting along splendidly as the project has proven successful.

J. Guenza has enlarged his hotel on Albion ridge to accommodate his increasing business.

HAIR AND COLOR.

Red Is Much Nearer Allied to Black Than to Blond.

The color of the hair, says the Grand Magazine, is usually transmitted from parents to child. This is especially true when both parents have the same complexion. Instances, however, are not uncommon where children have hair black as ebony, while the hair of both parents is a burning red. Instead of disproving the theory that a child takes after its parents, so far as the color of the hair is concerned, this fact, it has now been ascertained, is all in favor of the doctrine. Red hair, in fact, is by its structure and composition much nearer to black hair than to blond.

Very often if the hair of a very dark complexioned person be examined attentively a few quite red hairs will be detected in the mass. On the other hand, it would be time wasted to seek for black hairs in the locks of a fair person. Similarly it is not infrequent to notice children whose hair, red at birth, becomes as they grow older quite dark. When, too, after some serious illness, the production of the coloring pigment of the hair falls off, black hair becomes not blond, but red. Fair hair, which to a casual eye appears to have much more affinity to red hair than to black, is, on the contrary, quite distinct.

Valued Religious Relics.

The collection of religious relics to be seen in the church of the Corsican village of Sisco is undoubtedly unique. The inhabitants of this pretty little place are exceedingly devout and very simple, which probably accounts for the possession of such a remarkable collection. A writer in L'Independence Belge gives the following list of the principal items: The horn used by Moses to call together the children of Israel while in the desert, a tuft of that red hair which was the pride of Esau and the despair of Jacob, a piece of the nail of the little toe of the left foot—the statement is very precise—of Enoch, the patriarch; the bib worn by the infant Jesus, the curb and crupper of the ass that took the holy family into Egypt and several relics of various saints.

Two Laymen Have Been Popes

The canon law does not prescribe that the pope must be a cardinal or even a cleric. Nevertheless since the election of Urban VI. in 1378 the successful candidates have belonged to the members of the sacred college, although as late as 1758 a noncardinal was voted for several times. At least two laymen—John XIX. (1024) and Adrian V. (1276)—have occupied the papal throne, and there is today nothing to prevent laymen from being created cardinals, although they are not entitled to vote in the conclave unless they can produce a special permit from the late pope.

POINT ARENA AND VICINITY

Point Arena, Sept. 24.—There are still some fine deer to be found in the hills near here. W. E. Foster went out last week and bagged a buck that tipped the scales at 100 pounds.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Coombs spent an evening in town last week while on their way home from the Herrin aggregation at Santa Cruz the week before.

Frank Piper was thrown from a load of hay while working at Gualala the first of last week but escaped without serious injury.

E. E. Gillmore, Dr. D. A. Marsan, D. R. Beebe and C. M. Reinking, of this vicinity, are trail jurors that have been summoned to Ukiah for this term of court.

Thos. Bourns was down from Fort Bragg the other day trying to get men to work for the Union Lumber company. Men are very scarce on the coast this year.

The youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Gillmore fell off the stage in Halliday's hall last week and broke her collar bone.

C. S. Rogers, who has been working in the Record office, was stricken with paralysis one day last week.

Supt. O'Brien has a crew of men at work laying a cement foundation for the company's new building in town. The building is to be 50x80 feet and will be up-to-date and an ornament to the town. Tom Stuart has charge of the work.

Willie Schneider, who has been head clerk for W. E. Foster for many years, has taken his departure for South San Francisco where he will enter the mercantile business for himself. He was given a farewell party by Mr. Foster in Halliday's hall before going away. We all hate to see Willie go but wish him lots of success in his new field of labor.

The Reublicans opened their campaign in town this week and were addressed by Congressman McKinlay, the truant representative from this district. His explanation of why he played "hookey" was not satisfactory to the people of the coast.

John Inman is making a winning fight for supervisor and from the looks of things will carry off the persimmon. He will make a good official.

John Lane has returned home and every one is glad to see him on the state ticket and he will get a big vote over here. Every body is going to vote for the Mendocinoites on the state ticket—Frank Caughey, John Lane and J. B. Sanford. Let's stand by our county.

THROAT EXERCISES.

Evils That Come From Misuse of the Vocal Organs.

The chronic sore throat is not infrequently produced by the misuse of the vocal organs. Very often that unruly little member, the tongue, is accountable for the difficulty, as it is for a great many other troubles in this transitory life. Many people have a habit when talking of pushing the tongue so far back against the delicate membranes that line the throat that irritation more or less painful is caused, and if it continues any length of time ulcers will form, and so will a doctor's bill.

Control of the tongue is excellent in all senses of the word. Physically this organ may be managed by depressing it into a hollow at a point three-quarters of an inch back of where the tip of it comes when in a natural position in the mouth and at the same time singing very light head tones. This exercise requires some patience at first, but the habit of keeping the tongue down is soon acquired. In speaking or singing it should not be allowed to hoop up and fill the mouth, thus interfering with the free passage of the tones of the voice from the throat to the front of the mouth, where they should strike and then escape clear as a bell. This hooping up of the tongue in the mouth is the cause of much of the indistinct and slovenly utterances to which we are too often obliged to listen.

In many people we notice the line from the point of the chin to the neck is in the form of a right angle. In a shapely throat this line forms a curve, just as a canary's does when the small yellow artist is warbling his carols.

To develop the throat and make this angle a curve stand before a mirror so that you may watch the throat swell out. Now thrust your tongue out as far as it will go, then draw it back quickly and forcibly, at the same time bringing it downward in the mouth as far as you can. Place your thumb and forefinger against the larynx (commonly called the Adam's apple), and if you are making the right movement you will feel the larynx pass downward. For a week or two make the movements lightly. After that time put as much force into it as you can. The exercise should be practiced for a few minutes several times a day to insure rapid and good results.

To fill up the hollows of the neck stand correctly and then slowly fill the lungs with air without elevating your shoulders. As the air is forced upward into the throat hold it there a few seconds and then expel slowly. This exercise is best performed soon after rising in the morning and before retiring at night.—New York Post.

SAYS BELL WILL BE GOVERNOR

R. H. Davis, the well known president of the Pacific Coast Commercial Travelers' Association, and a man who has been traveling the coast counties for nigh a quarter of a century, is in town on business.

For years Mr. Davis has been regarded as one of the best political forecasters in the state. Davis predicts that the Hon. Theodore A. Bell, the Democratic nominee for governor, will be the next governor of California, and he makes this assertion after a careful noting of conditions and his contact with hundreds of men in his travels. Bob Davis is one of the best known and best liked men on the road and has hosts of friends wherever he goes.—Santa Rosa Press-Democrat.

Cured of Lame Back

"I have been troubled with lame back for fifteen years and I found a complete recovery in the use of Chamberlain's Pain Balm," says John G. Bisher, of Indiana. The liniment is also without an equal for sprains and bruises. It is for sale by J. R. Mathews' Pharmacy, Ukiah.

For sale—Fifty head of young cows one-half Duram bred by registered Hereford bulls. Price $21.50 per head. Inquire, box 175 Cloverdale.

Special Sale

School supplies and books of all kinds at Hutchinson & Roeder's.

SITUATION IN HOP MARKET

The hop situation is occupying much of the time and attention of hop dealers in California. The crop is not so large as expected in these parts and the foreign demand is increasing daily. England and other European countries show a decided shortage in hops and an enormous demand from the old country is expected. The California yield will probably be somewhere in the neighborhood of 90,000 bales. The hop situation in the north is becoming serious. The late rains have caused the crop to be light and notwithstanding the fact that prices range from 16 cents to 20 cents, growers have contracted their crops for 10 cents and are not getting any benefit of the raise. The pickers are not able to make anything at the ordinary wages paid and hundreds are striking for a raise.—Rural Press.

Andy Hensley and wife arrived in town this week and will make their home here for the winter. They have resided at Willits for a number of years where Mr. Hensley held a position with the Irvine & Muir company. For the past month they have been enjoying a vacation camping out, going as far as Eureka and then coming back along the coast. Andy reports the Democratic ticket very strong on the coast and in all other points that he has been in the county.

Notice of Foreclosure Sale

John M. Roberts, plaintiff, vs. George E. Shinn and Harriet Bell Shinn, defendants.

Under and by virtue of an order of sale issued out of the Superior Court of the State of California, in and for the county of Mendocino, on the 25th day of September, 1906, in pursuance of a judgment decree of foreclosure and sale rendered and entered in and by said Superior Court on the 24th day of September, 1906, in an action therein entitled as above, in favor of the said plaintiff, John M. Roberts, and against the said defendants, George E. Shinn and Harriet Bell Shinn, for the sum of sixteen hundred and thirty-nine one hundredths dollars in United States gold coin, besides interest, costs, etc., which said judgment and decree was on the 24th day of September, 1906, recorded in Judgment Book 8, of said Court, at pages 129, 130, I am commanded to sell all that certain lot, piece or parcel of land, situate, lying and being in the county of Mendocino, State of California, and bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Beginning at the southwest corner of section eight (8) and running thence east seven hundred (700) feet to the center of the main channel of Russian river; thence north one hundred and ninety (190) feet to the mouth of Brush creek; thence northerly and northwesterly along the center of the Brush creek channel to where the lands of George Busch and Wm. Snider join at the west line of section eight (8); thence south along the west line of section eight (8) eighty rods to the place of beginning; said land being a portion of the southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section number eight (8), township number seventeen (17) north, range number eleven (11) west, Mount Diablo Base and Meridian, and containing twenty (20) acres, more or less.

Together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging, or in anywise appertaining.

Public notice is hereby given that on SATURDAY THE 20TH DAY OF OCTOBER, A. D., 1906, AT 10 O'CLOCK, A. M.

of that day, in front of the eastern entrance to the court house of the said county of Mendocino, in the town of Ukiah City in said county, I will, in obedience to said order of sale and decree of foreclosure and sale, sell the above described property, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to satisfy said judgment, with the interest and costs, etc., to the highest and best bidder for gold coin of the United States.

Dated this 25th day of September, 1906. D. M. GIBSON,
Sheriff of the County of Mendocino, State of California.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

How to Play Hop Over, a Jolly, Jumping Outdoor Game.

It is said a person must be "awfully old" not to enjoy this game.

Stand all the players in a ring, about two feet apart, except one player, who must stand in the center. He must hold one end of a long, strong string. To the other end tie a book or any other article of similar shape and weight, wrapped up in paper.

Now the player in the center must whirl the parcel around and around the circle on the floor. The game is that any one whose feet are touched by the parcel or the string must be "it" and take his place in the center. Consequently, in order to escape this awful penalty, every player must jump over the parcel or string whenever it comes around his way.

Of course the book is whirled around faster and faster every time, so you can imagine the lively jumping that goes on. And woe to the slow one! For it is likely that the string or parcel will not merely touch his feet, but wind round and round his ankles, making him a hopeless prisoner.

Try this game, boys and girls. It is a jolly one for out of doors.

Game of Fly Feather.

This is an old English amusement, described by Mrs. Burton Kingsland, which affords lots of fun. The players put their chairs together to form a close circle. A small downy feather with a very short stem is procured and thrown as high as possible in the air. It is then blown, the object of each player being not to be touched by it. The person it falls upon pays a forfeit, and this is redeemed at the end of the game.

It must not be blown too violently or it will fly so high that it will be difficult to reach, and the one who blows it outside the circle must also pay a forfeit.

When children play it they usually prefer to dance around in pursuit of it, but they must not let go each other's hands to catch it in its descent. The player who goes through three rounds without being touched wins the game.

A Bloodthirsty Marshal.

The marshal of Hamilton, Mont., evidently does not intend to let the place go to the dogs. The Western News of Hamilton prints the following notice, which should be effective:

TAKE NOTICE.

All persons owning dogs and who do not pay dog tax on the same by the 15th of July will be killed.

JAMES HIGGINS, Marshal.

RICHARD BURBAGE.

He Was a Great Actor and Shakespeare's Leading Star.

March 16, 1618 or 1619, Richard Burbage, player, died at Shoreditch, London.

The first of the great English tragic actors, Burbage was in every way worthy to head the long roll of England's famous players. The son of an actor, the friend and companion of Shakespeare, it was through him that many of the heroes of the dramatist first spoke to the eager playgoers who thronged the Globe theater. He was the original of Romeo, Hamlet, Lear, Othello, Macbeth, Shylock, Richard III, and many other of Shakespeare's leading characters, and his name stands next to that of the great poet in the licenses for acting granted by James I. in 1603 to the company of the Globe theater.

His powers as an actor were not his only claim to distinction, for he was also a successful painter. The fame of his abilities held a prominent place in theatrical tradition for many years, a poem in his honor, dedicated to one of the great players of the day, being written as late as the time of Charles II.

His death, which was probably the result of paralysis, caused the poets to turn their thoughts to his successful career, and it is from the numerous elegies then written that most of the information concerning him must be gathered. Few players have ever had the good fortune to be so well liked by the dramatists of their time, and all praised him, one even lamenting that his death "hath made a visible eclipse of playing."

A shrewd, careful man in his business affairs, Burbage left an estate producing a yearly income of £300, a large sum for a player in those days to bequeath to his heirs. Beloved and respected by all, he survived his great master by only a few years, his grave bearing the simple, expressive epitaph, "Exit Burbage." — London Saturday Review.

Madrid's Throne Room.

The throne room of the royal palace at Madrid is one of the most magnificent in the world. Decorated in red and gold, it contains rock crystal chandeliers, colossal looking glasses of the finest quality, marble tables and priceless porphyry. The ceiling is painted by Tiepolo with the "Majesty of Spain," in illustration of the virtue of the kings and the manliness of the people, who are represented in the different costumes of the provinces. Here the sovereigns of Spain receive on grand occasions when alive and when dead are laid out in state.

Women Sailors.

Women sailors are employed in Denmark, Norway and Finland and are often found to be excellent mariners. In Denmark several women are employed as state officials at sea, and particularly in the pilot service. They go out to meet the incoming ships; they climb nimbly out of their boats; they show their official diploma, and they steer the newcomer safely into the harbor. It is the same in Finland.

Summons.

In the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California.

Morgan Jones, plaintiff, vs. N. Gertrude Weeks, defendant.

Action brought in the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California, by the plaintiff, filed in the office of the Clerk of said County.

Thomas, Pemberton & Thomas, post office bldg., Ukiah, Cal., attorneys for plaintiff.

The people of the State of California send greeting to N. Gertrude Weeks, defendant.

You are hereby directed to appear and answer the complaint in the action entitled as above, brought against you in the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California, within ten days after the service on you of this summons, if served within the County, or within thirty days if severed elsewhere.

Said action is brought to obtain a decree and judgment of said Court, quieting the title of the plaintiff in and to certain lands in said County, and adjudging and decreeing that the plaintiff is the owner in fee and has the unincumbered title to and ownership of said lands and all thereof, and also adjudging and decreeing that you, the said defendant, have no estate, right, title or interest whatever in said lands or premises or any part thereof and that any claim made by you to said lands, adverse to the said title of the said plaintiff, is without any right whatever, and for costs of suit. said lands being described as follows, to-wit:

All of section 16 and lots 7, 8, 9 and 16 of section 17, Township 17 North Range 14 West, Mount Diablo base and Meridian.

You are hereby notified that unless you appear and answer as above required, the said plaintiff will take judgment for any money or damages demanded in the complaint as arising upon contract, or he will apply to the Court for any other relief demanded in the complaint; that is to say, he will apply to the Court for judgment and decree quieting his title in and to said lands and adjudging that you have no title thereto and for costs of suit as above set forth.

Given under my hand and the seal of the Superior Court of the County of Mendocino, State of California, this 21st day of June, A. D. 1906.

HALE M'COWEN,
County Clerk and ex-officio Clerk of said Superior Court.

Inconsistency and Hypocrisy

The Republican platform favors "the enactment by congress of an amendment to the existing tariff law providing, as a measure of relief in San Francisco, that for the period of three years all building material be admitted into that port free of duty."

When it is remembered that the California delegation in congress made no effort to get any reduction of the tariff for the benefit of San Francisco, although a great deal of shouting has been heard as to how Congressman Needham's appointment on the Ways and Means Committee, which handles all tariff legislation, was to benefit this state, and when it is remembered that Congressman Kahn of San Francisco declared on the floor of the House that his city did not care for any changes in the tariff because the Steel Trust had given assurance that prices of structural steel and iron would not be made higher, we are brought face to face with the conclusion that they platform is insincere, FOR IT CANNOT HONESTLY DEMAND THAT CONGRESS DO WHAT IT COMMENDS OUR CONGRESSMEN FOR NOT DOING.

Furthermore, this insincere convention took as its candidate one of the congressmen whose course it inferentially condemned, and district conventions renominated, or will renominate, all the rest of them.

What influence would such men have in congress if they should go back asking for the very thing which Congressman Kahn said last spring that the didn't want? If the people of this state really want to help San Francisco by securing the abrogation of the tariff on building materials to be used there, they ought to retire to private life the men who proved recreant to that city's interests in her hour of greatest need and send men to Washington who can advocate the measure consistently and without making themselves the laughing stock of the whole country.

Incidentally it should be noted that the Republicans asked for free entry for only such building material as might enter the port of San Francisco. Why shouldn't it have read "all building material intended for use in San Francisco?"

McKinlay Absentee

Out of 91 roll calls during his picturesque career in the house of representatives, Congressman Duncan McKinlay is recorded as having been absent 31 times.

This information comes to the Star from its Washintgon correspondent in response to telegraphic orders that he look up the matter.

So it seems that McKinlay represented his constituents almost exactly two-thirds of the time for which he was hired to represent them. It may be good business to be satisfied with 66 2-3 per cent of what you are paying for, but nobody ever got rich that way.

On the other hand, the hired man who consistently takes off one-third of the time for which he is being paid, does not usually retain his job long after the employer starts using simple arithmetic and common sense.

If the voters of the second congressional district of California are content to re-engage a representative who has palpably loafed one-third of his workng hours and has done virtually nothing but answer "present" during the remainder, they will show more complaisance than acumen.

As a matter of fact, what IS Mr. McKinlay's congressional record? Let the gentleman himself answer. He probably knows more about it than anyone else, since no one else knows anything whatever concerning it.—Sacramento Star.

Hypocrisy Personified

The climax of hypocrisy in the Republican platform is reached in the plank that indorses and approves "the conservative, economical and prudent management of state affairs by the present Republican administration of California."

The applause which followed the reading of this plank was in strange contrast with the dull thud with which the convention dropped Governor Pardee into the Down and Out Club. Pardee's biting remark after Gillett was nominated, "Is is evident that the convention didn't want the kind of administration I have given," revealed the insincerity of the men who, as Joab did to Amasa, caught the Governor by the beard to kiss him and then smote him under the fifth rib.

A LANDSLIDE FOR THEO. BELL

The landslide for Bell has already begun. There is a great revolution in Southern California against boss rule. The Los Angeles Express, the Redlands Citrograph, two staunch Republican papers, refuse to swallow the "raw work" at Herrin's Santa Cruz convention and will support Bell for governor. The Los Angeles News warns Gillett that he will not have a walkover. The Tulare Register is also up in arms and the Sacramento Bee, the ablest edited paper in the state, is doing heroic work for Bell. The Union Labor party in Santa Clara, Marin, San Mateo, and San Francisco have unanimously endorsed Bell. A break from the ranks of the G. O. P. has begun in every part of the state, and it looks as though there is going to be a veritable landslide to Bell. S. Solon Holl, a prominent attorney of Sacramento, and a life long Republican, can't stand for bossism and comes out in a ringing article appealing to all honest Republicans to support Bell. He has supported every Republican candidate for president and governor since Fremont, but balks when the affairs of the party become so disgustingly raw. C. M. Beckwith, a former prominent attorney of Stockton, and a life long Republican, now living in Sacramento, has left the old Herrin party and has accepted the Democratic nomination for the assembly. And still the good work goes on. Hurrah for Bell!

LABOR STRONG FOR THEODORE BELL

An indication of the sentiment respecting Bell in labor circles is given in the statement made by O. A. Tveitmoe, secretary-treasurer of the State Building Trades Council:

"I believe Theodore A. Bell will be the next governor of California—a governor of, for and by the people, and not the gubernatorial representative of the Southern Pacific railroad and kindred trust corporations.

"United Labor will fight Gillett's candidacy, however, no matter what conventions may do. Gillett's record both in the legislature and in congress is absolutely bad, and the union men of this state have no use for any man in public life who votes to amend the eight-hour law, which Gillett did when the Panama Canal question was considered at the session of the Fifty-ninth Congress. That is our first and main reason for fighting him and the second objection that labor has against Gillett is his servility to the Southern Pacific Railroad company. He is Harriman-Herrin's nominee, and if elected governor will execute their orders at the expense of the people and the state.

"The American Federation of Labor, the State Building Trades Council of California, the Building Trades Council of San Francisco and the San Francisco Labor Council, their affiliated unions and members, will fight Gillett because he has been an enemy of the Trades Union movement, as proved by his official acts, and all his protestations of friendship cannot overcome his congressional record."

HOW TO SMASH BOSSISM

The ticket headed by Theodore Bell was named by a convention that emphatically declared for what Mr. Langdon calls "the highest Democratic principles." The support of that ticket will be an effective protest against boss rule and a positive act to secure legislation and the enforcement of laws to bring government close to the people, to curb the trusts and to bring about other desirable reforms. A vote for the Independence League will help to divide the anti-machine forces and will be half a vote for the Republican ticket. The real battle is between Gillett and Bell, between the bosses and the people.

A good citizen should demand sound reasons when he is asked to vote for any other candidate for governor than that independent champion of the whole people, Theodore A. Bell, whose sledge hammer blows will SMASH THE MACHINE.

HERRIN VS. THE PEOPLE

James N. Gillett was not nominated for governor of California by the Republicans of this state. He was nominated by E. H. Harriman along in the early spring at a swell banquet in Washington, and Herrin was commissioned to see that the Republican party ratified the nomination at Santa Cruz. By the aid of all the bosses he could command he forced the Repulicans to turn down Pardee and name Gillett. So the fight in this state this year is a straight issue between the Southern Pacific railroad and all the affiliated bosses on the one hand and the people on the other. The Harriman-Herrin candidate is James N. Gillett, the enemy of labor and the friend of the Citizen's Alliance. The people's candidate is Theodore A. Bell, whose whole life work has been in the interest of the people.

Harriman and Herrin are being assisted by W. R. Hearst who is disgruntled because he could not boss the Democratic party. He therefore went out in the cold and organized a little bob-tailed party of his own and is its undisputed boss. Langdon is in the race for no other reason than to cause the defeat of the People's choice for governor. A vote for Langdon is half a vote for Gillett. There is no use for an Independence League if the organizers of that movement are sincere. The Democratic platform is clearer, more aggresive and positive than that of the Independence League. Let no one be deluded in to voting for the League candidates. The people should be united in this contest and vote for their friend—Theodore A. Bell.

THE PLAIN ISSUE

The people are to be congratulated that the issue is so clear and plain in this campaign.

IF THE PEOPLE WANT HERRIN AND HARRIMAN TO NAME THEIR OFFICIALS THEY CAN VOTE FOR GILLETT AND THE JUDICIAL NOMINEES WHO WENT CRAWLING ON THEIR BELLIES BEGGING NOMINATIONS FROM THE BOSS AND OFFERING TRADES.

There has been no attempt at concealment. The Call photographer got a flashlight picture of a political and social function at Major Frank McLaughlin's house. Gillett stands in the center with his hand lovingly laid on Ruef's shoulder while George Hatton on one side and Walter Parker on the other stand smiling affectionately at the happy pair.

Governor Pardee is very sore. He has made a good governor for the people and if the people could have had a voice in the convention he would have been renominated. But he was turned down by Herrin and Ruef, the two bosses that think and act for the Republican party in California. The statement that Pardee gave out after the convention sounds like a cross between a groan and a snarl. He refused to preside at the big Oakland meeting and will doubtless let Herrin run his own machine.

There never was a ticket named that has fallen so flat as the Harriman-Herrin ticket this year. The entire press of the state is paralyzed. The Chronicle had a ponderous article on the platform, but nothing about Gillett. The Call says plainly that the convention was run by Herrin and Ruef. The Bulletin is in a "receptive mood." Altogether, as Dan Burns used to say, "the situation is delightful."

Jim Gillett, Gillett, Gillett,
What'll he get? What'll he get?
THE AX!!!
Porter, too, is feeling blue
And the whole Republican crew
Hears one shout the whole state through THEODORE BELL!!

The political managers of the Union Labor party called upon W. H. Langdon gubernatorial nominee of the Independence League to withdraw from the race and told him plainly that he was not doing himself any good nor was his stand helpful to labor. He was told that he was the stool pigeon of W. R. Hearst. In the delegation calling upon Langdon were Secretary W. S. McCabe of the State Federation of Labor, Michael Casey president of the Brotherhood of Teamsters and others.

THE BELLS

(With apologies to Poe.)

See the voters with their Bells,
Little Bells!
What a glorious victory their melody
foretells!
How they tinkle, tinkle, tinkle,
Morning, noon, and night!
And the joyful news they sprinkle
Makes Gillett's backbone crinkle,
Filling up his soul with fright.
Keeping time, time, time,
In an ecstacy sublime,
To the cheering of the multitude
That gets right up and yells!
For the Bells, Bells, Bells, Bells,
Bells, Bells, Bells,
Can't you see where we will be up
With the Bells?

Hear the loud alarm Bells,
Brazen Bells,
'Tis the Californian voters singing out
Gillett smells!
Hear 'em ring! ring! ring!
Hear the Bell-faced bummers hang!
An' jest watch 'em kick from time'er
That monopolist gang!
Hear the chime! chime! chime!
On a cooling, clinking chyme.
Keep a stout heart you Napa boy,
And we'll be there on time
With the bells!
With the Bells! Bells! Bells! Bells!
Bells! Bells! Bells!
Nothing in 'em; Watch us skin 'm!
With the Bells!

Hear the tolling of the Bells,
Election Bells!
What a lesson to the grafters now,
Their turbulency tells!
They are rolling, rolling, rolling
Right up against a rock;
And little Willie Hearst with your punchiello knock,
And you too, Jim Gillett, you will get your final shock
From the Bells!
From the Bells! Bells! Bells! you will get
Salt river smells,
On the sixth of next November you'll be put back in your shells
By the Bells!
Oh! the Bells, Bells, Bells, what a tale their tolling tells;
Yes, we know you, and we'll show
you
With the Bells!

WILLIE MUST DROP LANGDON

San Francisco, Sept. 26.—This afternoon six prominent labor leaders sent a telegram to William R. Hearst of New York, urging him to abandon his support of W. H. Langdon in this campaign.

The telegram stated further that if Hearst continued his opposition to Labor's choice for governor, the Hon. Theodore A. Bell, that Labor in New York would oppose him. If the latter course is taken the newspaper editor would stand no show of election.

It is believed that after the stand taken today Langdon does not stand the slightest show of making anything out of his campaign, and that his aspirations will be sent a glimmering.

Yell! Yell! Yell!! Everybody
Yell!!!
Theodore, Theodore, Theodore
Bell.

H. T. Thompson, one of the large property holders in the section east of Covelo, was in town this week as a witness in the Simmons case.

SHOULD QUIT KNOCKERS' CLUB

A local Hard Times contemporary became hysterical this week because the board of supervisors had to meet conditions brought about by floods and earthquake. The floods of last January destroyed $30,000 worth of bridges and the earthquake destroyed $10,000 more. Had this calamity not come the tax rate would have been about $1.90 or less. The board, however, had no control over the elements or the forces of nature. They did just what thousands of private individuals did—met the conditions as best they could and tried to revive confidence in the county by rebuilding that which had been destroyed. Mendocino county is to be congratulated that she was hit so lightly. San Francisco and Santa Rosa suffered an awful loss, but no one there is out with a chal "knocking." This is not a time to "knock," let us all brace up and build up, and make good what has been lost. We don't see why our contemporary is shedding so many tears over it, as the taxes could be paid by a hop picker by a half day's labor. Resign from the "Knocker's Club," brother, and join the "Boom and Boost Club."

William Randolph Hearst has been nominated for governor of New York by the Democratic party after a fierce struggle. He received 309 votes and his opponent 142. Boss Murphy whom Hearst "roasted" all last fall threw the Tammany vote to Hearst which secured him the nomination. This is certainly a strange anomaly. Hearst is running on the Democratic ticket in New York and is doing all in his power to defeat the Democratic nominee in California.

As It Looks In Lake County

Senator John B. Sanford, of Ukiah, renominated for state senator from this district, is a positive winner. His able and creditable record during his three terms as assemblyman and one as a senator is a guarantee that he is the best fitted man on the horizon to represent us for the next four years. That his own county, Mendocino, where he is well known as an intelligent, independent and progressive citizen, will support him, is without doubt. Glenn and Colusa counties can be counted on for their 700 Democratic majority or more, and Lake will give him a majority despite the fact that a Lake county man is the Republican sacrifice for that office. If the expressions of local Republicans (mind you) are to be credited, Sanford will carry this precinct, Mr. Hammond's principal stamping ground and one in which the Republicans claim 60 majority, by a good round number.—Clear Lake Press.

Ornbaun for Donohoe

Having heard that some people have been quoting me as being against Emmet Donohoe, the Democratic candidate for sheriff, I take this method of stating to my friends and the public generally that I am not working against Emmet Donohoe, but on the contrary am doing all I can to assist in his election. He is my friend, is worthy of the office and I hope that all my friends will work as hard for his election as they would for mine had I been honored with the nomination. Respectfully,

W. F. ORNBAUN.
